LAMA KARMA SAMTEN

CANBERRA VISIT JUNE 16TH – 19TH

Venerable Lama Karma Samten is a monk of the Karma Kagyu lineage. He was born in Tibet in 1947 and with his family fled to India following the Chinese occupation of Tibet.

H.H. the 16th Karmapa appointed Lama Samten and Ven. Lama Shedrup as resident lamas of the Karma Choeling Buddhist Monastery near Auckland, New Zealand. They arrived in New Zealand in 1981. Since then they have been instrumental in building a traditional Buddhist temple, a large Buddha statue and eight stupas. The Centre's ongoing project is a Healing Centre. Lama Samten is an accomplished meditator and artist.

This is Lama's 13th visit to Canberra since 1986. During this visit he will teach on Buddhist Philosophy and Psychology, Study and Practice.
